Centre of excellence.

No on calls nor weekends allowing once to maximise learning opportunities.

Very supportive unit as a whole.

Well organised department with a large throughput of cases covering a wide spectrum of conditions, including transitional paediatric and neuromuscular cases.

Excellent range and number of surgical cases both in trauma and elective.

Occasional independent operating lists.

Good mentors, with demonstration of various surgical techniques and opportunity to put them into practice.

Enthusiastic teachers with loads of new ideas, but also receptive to the ideas of the fellows.

Outstanding academic environment, with many opportunities for audit, research and publication work.

Ability to develop not only surgical and clinical skills, but also managerial and leadership ones.

Exposure to multi-disciplinary meetings including diabetic, radiology, LRS

Encouraged to attend courses and meetings, with minimal difficulty in securing study leave

Time to socialise with the team.

Incredibly beautiful part of the world to live in for a year- Sheffield and the outstanding Peak District!
