

Thursday 16th July 2020 8pm

Second BOFAS Webinar on Foot and Ankle Services in the Era of COVID 19

Introduction Rick Brown Chairman Education Committee

Welcome James Davis BOFAS President

Our Trainees and F&A Training during the COVID era Moderator James Davis

20:10 Trainees view of working during Covid-19
Yaser Ghani, Foot & Ankle Registrar

20:17 The effect of Covid-19 on our trainees
Tricia Campbell, BOTA President

20:24 The trainers' view of post-graduate training
Tricia Allen, BOFAS Past President

20:31 What BOFAS is doing to help?
Tim Williams, Secretary BOFAS Education Committee

20:38 The FRCS (Tr&Orth) examination
Steve Eastaugh-Waring, Bristol, Chair of the Board of Examiners

20.45 Audience survey & Questions to Panel

First Steps in Re-starting F&A Surgery Moderator Anna Chapman

21.00 Current pattern of F&A trauma in Phase 2
Jit Mangwani, Clinical Director for Trauma Leicester Hospital

21.07 Prioritising in an elective centre?
Simon Henderson, Belfast, BOFAS Past President

21.14 Foot surgery under blocks and without an anaesthetist
Ben Yates, Swindon NHS Trust

21.21 Restarting elective F&A surgery – The medico-legal aspects
Heath Taylor, Bournemouth, BOFAS President Elect

21.28 How to be efficient?
Fred Robinson, Cambridge, BOFAS Past President

21.35 Audience survey & Questions to Panel

22.00 Close