

Third BOFAS Webinar on Foot and Ankle Services in the Era of COVID 19

8pm Thursday 20th August, 2020

Introduction Rick Brown, Chairman Education Committee

Welcome James Davis, BOFAS President

The Private Sector and Medico-legal Issues Moderator James Davis

- 20:05 What did happen to F&A Surgery in the Private sector?
James Ritchie, Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon, Tunbridge Wells, Kent
- 20:12 What will happen to F&A Surgery in the Private Sector?
Geoff Graham, Interim Chief Medical Officer, Nuffield Health Group.
- 20:19 A Surgeon's view of the Medicolegal pitfalls in F&A Surgery during the Covid Era
Chris Constant, Cons Ortho Surgeon & Specialist in Medical Negligence, Cambridge
- 20:26 The Industry view of the emerging Medicolegal consequences of the Covid-19
Pandemic Joanne Staphnill, Incision – Medical Indemnity Company

20.33 Questions to Panel

The New normal in F&A Surgery Moderator Hiro Tanaka

- 21.00 Latest Projections from the BOA
Don McBride, University Hospital North Midlands BOA President
- 21.07 Diabetic foot care during Covid
Venu Kavarthapu, Kings College Hospital, London
- 21.14 The Use of New Technology in a F&A Network
Rick Brown, Oxford Chairman BOFAS Education Committee
- 21.21 GIRFT after Covid
Tim Briggs, RNOH BOA Past President
- 21.28 How to be efficient?
Fred Robinson, Cambridge BOFAS Past President

21.35 Questions to Panel

22.00 Close